Days Out: How to Book

Day excursions and other social events are organised by the Days Out Committee (see page xvi)

- Enquiries and bookings may be made at monthly meetings or by phone. If phoning, please ring Jean Williams (01737 845907).
- Payment must be made by cheque (not cash) with the name of the outing written on the back and made out to DORKING & DISTRICT U3A SOCIAL EVENTS. Payment may be made either at monthly meetings or by post to arrive no later than 14 days before the outing.
- In the interests of fairness and to avoid block bookings, the committee will be pleased to accept reservations for yourself and just one other person per outing.
- Please send your cheque to Jean Williams, 77A Middle Street, Brockham, Betchworth RH3 7HL.
- Please note: Verbal bookings will be treated as provisional and must be followed up by payment within one week. Your cheque will secure your place.
- It should be pointed out that in the event of a member making a cancellation, only the entrance fee can be refunded, provided this is possible.
- Refreshments are not normally included in the cost, which is based on the assumption that a minimum of 40 people will be travelling.

Your suggestions for future excursions would be much appreciated. Details of each trip are given on the next two pages. We give the names of the leaders and their mobile numbers. Please note that these numbers should only be used on the day of the outing.

For coach departure arrangements, see opposite.

The extensive gardens at Exbury are famous for their stunning collection of rhododendrons and azaleas, which should be at their most spectacular in April (see colour picture inside cover).

A ride on the steam train is included in the price and there is a café and shop on the site, so this promises to be a pleasant and relaxing day out.

ST ALBANS

St Albans is named after a Roman soldier who was martyred for sheltering a Christian priest in the third century when a Roman town called Verulanium stood where St Albans stands now. The museum contains many Roman artefacts together with a model of the third century Verulanium.

There is a great deal to see and admire in the magnificent cathedral, which is supported on massive Norman piers decorated with 13th and 14th century paintings.

French Row is a medieval street, now pedestrianised, where you can pore over antique shops to your heart's content.

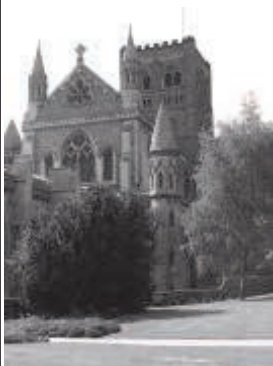

This is a 'go as you please' day in an attractive town with some steep hills, so come with comfortable shoes.

(See colour pictures inside cover)

Leaders: Judy Peace 07889 522908 and Sue Grant 07781 911796

Cost: £14

Friday 17 June 2016
MOTTISFONT

If you are fond of roses, especially old-fashioned roses (and who isn't?), you won't want to miss Mottisfont in June where the National Collection of Old Roses, such as the Moss Rose Chapeau de Napoleon or the bi-coloured Rosa Mundi scent the air and delight the eye in the walled garden.

In addition, there is an 18th-century house to look round, an art exhibition to see, a small outdoor café and beautiful grounds with a stream flowing gently by.

(See colour pictures on back cover)

Leaders: Sue Grant 07781 911796 and Judith Kingsley 07497 763577

Cost: £16

NB. This is a National Trust venue. Non-members of the National Trust will be asked to pay an extra £11 on the bus: correct cash if possible, please. National Trust members please bring your card.

GOODNIGHT MISTER TOM

Sad and troubled, young William Beech is evacuated to the idyllic English countryside as Britain stands on the brink of World War II. He is billeted with the curmudgeonly recluse Tom Oakley. Tom and Will build a remarkable and moving friendship, an unlikely bond which transforms them both, only to have their newfound happiness shattered when Will is summoned back to London by his mother. Heart-warming and inspiring, this story of two broken souls at opposite ends of the age scale celebrates the value of love and proves that friendship knows no barriers.
